JOHN & NANCY COE CUMMINS FAMILIES
of Bourbon Co., Ky. (July 1956)

- 1 A recent discovery (the 1776 Census of Harford Co., Md.), gives PHILIP CUMMINS b. 1710, wife SARAH b. 1722, children: John b. 1753; Casandra b. 1756; Benjamin b. 1757; Samuel b. 1759; Andrew b. 1763. John Cummins enlisted in the Militia of Harford Co. in Sept. 1775, Co. 3, Capt. Anderson. (Hist. Harford Co., Md. Preston 1901 pa 108). He is of the right age to have been the John Cummins who served as a Capt. in the Militia of Kentucky during the Revolution. He is supposed to have had an elder brother, ALEXANDER CUMMINS, who served in the armies of Virginia during the revolution. The Virginia Cummins lived in Fauquier & Loudoun Counties.

The Kentucky Families.
Surnames first two generations Cummings.

- 2-1 JOHN CUMMINS I. b.c. 1753, wife c. SALLY (Sarah). Served as a Captain in the Ky. Militia during the Revolution. Signed the marriage bond of his son John who was under age. Date of his death unknown. Children probably: John, Joseph d. 1826; Jacob d. 1833; James; Elizabeth; and Daniel d. 1828.
- 3-1 JOHN CUMMINS II b.c. 1775; d. c. 1812. (1800 Census Tax-payer, Bourbon Co.) m. Feb. 7, 1794, ALICE (ELICE) LEWIS, c. dau. of Robert Lewis, who signed her marriage bond (under age at the time of marriage). His will has not been located. On Feb. 1, 1819 ELIZABETH CUMMINS, at her own request, became the guardian of the infant heirs of JOHN II Cummins. (Order Book, F pa 241). They were: Delitha, William, Abram, Nancy & John. (The Nancy may have been wife of John III Cummins, who was still under 21.) There may have been older children.
- 4-5? JOHN CUMMINS III. b. c. 1799 in Bourbon Co., Ky. d.c. 1840 when on a land-hunting trip to the West. (Killed by the Indians - Lynch, Western Wars.) m. 1815-1816 in Cincinnati, NANCY COE b. 1798 in Loudoun Co., Va., youngest dau. of Elijah Coe (1755-1815) and Ann Middleton Smallwood (1755-1805) both of whom were born in Pr. Geo. Co. Md., m. 1779, moved 1780 to near Hillsboro, Loudoun Co. Va. where they had a family of ten children. Nancy Coe Cummins d. between 1840 & 1850. Children: order of birth unknown; 5-1 John David; 5-2 Cynthia; 5-3 Sarah; 5-4 Nancy; 5-5 Eliza Jane; 5-6 Catherine; 5-7 Adaline. There was probably a younger son for the 1830 Census of Bourbon Co. gives males 1 1-5; 1 20-30; fem. 2 1-5; 1 20-30. This younger son b. c. 1827.
- At the time of their marriage, John III Cummins was a younger partner in the Gridiron Tannery located at Ludlow Station on Mill Creek in the village named Cumminsville in 1838 after the owner, David Cummins, at that time. The village has been incorporated into Cincinnati. All records were destroyed by a courthouse fire. The older partner in the tannery was JOHN JEMISON b. 1793 in Mason Co. Ky., who married on the same day in what was probably a double wedding, CYNTHIA COE b. 1788, Nancy's oldest sister. All four parties to the weddings were orphans and the grooms, both named John, were born in Kentucky. The Jemisons moved in 1816 to Jackson Twp., Fayette Co., Ind., where the husband operated farms and a tannery and where they had a family of one daughter and six sons. The researches of two genealogists have not established the exact date of the marriage. John & Nancy moved to his native Bourbon Co. Ky.
- 5-1 JOHN DAVID CUMMINS b. 1818; d. Oct. 1885. m. July 31, 1840 at Aberdeen, Ohio (in a run-away marriage which included an all-night trip of about 50 miles on horseback) CAROLINE WILLIAMS, b. June 5, 1822; d. March 16, 1904, dau. of Eli Williams b. Jan. 3, 1800, d. before the family moved in 1855 to Liberty Twp., Grant Co., Ind. and Elizabeth (Hanna) Williams of Bourbon Co. b. Sept. 11, 1796; d. June 21, 1867. The Williams children were: E.B. ; Merritt; Dyantha; Catherine; Benjamin F.

Mrs. Emma Manlove, 323 So. Main St., Fairmount, Ind., is a descendant and has furnished much of the data on the Williams family. The 1840 Census of Bourbon Co. gives John D. Cummins, males 1 20-30; fem, 1 10-15; 2 15-20; 1 30-40. The females included his wife, two sisters and his mother, Nancy. The 1850 Census gives JOHN D. CUMMINS 36; Caroline 26; Charles 9; Noah 8; John 3; Eady (Olivia) 3. The fifth child, Sarah was born Aug. 15, 1850, before the family left in Oct. by ox-team & covered wagon, for Posey Twp., Fayette Co., Ind. Amanda, Millard, Frank & Grant were born in Indiana. The homestead was the S.W.  $\frac{1}{4}$  Sec. 22, Posey Twp. John D. was a farmer and breeder of race horses.

(F. J. Barrows in Hist. of Fayette Co. Ind. pub. Indianapolis 1917, gives John D. & Noah pa. 793; Millard F. pa. 840; Frank pa. 994 & Murl D. pa. 1010). The lumber for his frame house was cut from timber growing on the homestead.

JOHN D. CUMMINS, d. May 1900 age 56, in Cynthiana, Harrison Co. Ky.

ELIZABETH CUMMINS, MAID or WIDOW ?

ELIZABETH CUMMINS, on her own motion, was appointed guardian of the infant heirs of JOHN II CUMMINS on Feb. 1, 1919; Delitha, William, Abram, Nancy & John. (An infant was under 21.) Nancy Coe, wife of John III, might have been considered one of the infant heirs of his father JOHN II, since they both were still under 21. JOHN MORROW was security. The June Court 1818 met at Elizabeth's house and WM. B. BRANHAM, was appointed Adm. with the consent of the widow, ALICE LEWIS CUMMINS who declined to serve. Wm. Rogers was surety, bond $700.

The 1830 Census of Bourbon Co. gives ELIZABETH CUMMINS, m. 1 10-15; 1 15-20; fem. 1 1-5; 1 5-10; 1 15-20; 1 40-50. Apparently Elizabeth was born between 1780 & 1790. Were these some of the children of JOHN III CUMMINS & NANCY COE CUMMINS? The same Census of Bourbon Co. gives JOHN CUMMINS m. 1 1-10; 1 20-30; fem. 2 1-5; 1 20-30. Where were the rest of the seven children?

ELIZABETH CUMMINS d. Sept. 1866, according to the register of the ELIZABETH BAPTIST CHURCH, of Bourbon Co. Ky.

(An Elizabeth Cummins m. Apl. 21, 1798 JOHN EDWARDS. Could she have assumed her maiden surname?)

The owner of the land about the Gridiron Tannery on Mill Creek was David Cummins, the first white child born in Cincinnati. Was he related to John David Cummins, b. 1818?
